About what percent of students in your selected course section do the following?

- Frequently ask questions in class or contribute to class discussions
- Frequently come to class without completing readings or assignments
- Frequently work harder than they usually do to meet your standards
- Occasionally use e-mail to communicate with you
- Occasionally discuss grades or assignments with you
- At least once, talk about career plans with you
- At least once, discuss ideas from readings or classes with you outside of class

Continue